

District 4 held its third annual Friendship Rally on May 17 – 20, 2017. Fifteen rigs and thirty-two campers attended the rally that was held at the Brickyard Plantation Golf Club and RV Park near Americus, Georgia.

In conjunction with the District 4 Rally, Alabama, Florida, and Georgia also held their respective State Rallies along with several chapter meetings. District 4 comprises the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, and Mississippi.

Participants enjoyed the 4-day event that included golf, a low-country boil, an outing at the Station Restaurant, the Cordele Farmer's Market, the Andersonville National Historic Site that includes the National Cemetery and the Andersonville POW Camp, the Rural Telephone Museum that claims to have the largest collection of antique phones and memorabilia in the world, and the Jimmy Carter National Historic site in Plains, GA.

District 4 Director Jim L. Fuhrman, Alabama Director Jim Sefert, and Roger Simmons spearheaded the plans for this year's rally. The group voted to have next year's rally in April at the same location with Georgia hosting the event.
