MASTER OF TRAVEL REPORT

Other than it being cold and a little stormy, the weather cooperated with us at Paso Robles. Although the attendance was small we all had a lot of fun. We only had to use two tables together for the potluck, which made for an interesting self service. Baseball turned out to be a very strange situation with there being times when a person was supposed to be up to bat, they were still on base, so we had pinch runners. Still we had lots of fun. The Gold Team won, and the girls beat the boys (curses, foiled again!). Our August camp out has been changed from Black Oak Casino to the Vineyard in Vacaville. The conditions in the Black Oak contract were too vague and restrictive and may have cost us more than we were prepared to spend. Another thing that we decided was that at the next campout we would decide on getting new club shirts, so plan to be there to make your voice heard.

Peg and I took a little side trip on Thursday after Kangaroo Court and drove over to Morro Bay. Neither of us had been there since the early '70's and we wanted to see what it was like. Driving down Hwy 1, the Morro Rock looked very impressive in the distance, but was less impressive once we were able to get up close. There was a very stiff wind off the bay which made an otherwise sunny day chilly. We went down to the harbor area and found a nice seafood restaurant called "Dutchman's". We both had an excellent lunch of fish, shrimp and fries.

For those of you who are familiar with Jay Peterson, we have been informed that he has kidney and lung cancer. His wife Pat has stepped down from working on the Tri-State Rally in Coos Bay in August so that she may care for him. The Frack's have taken over, so if anyone can help them, give them a call.

See you at French Camp in April!

TRAIL BOSS REPORT

On February 18, 2018, 7 rigs met at Wine Country RV resort for 5 days. There were not many of us, but we had a blast. Doing our usual things. Eating, playing cards, working puzzles, relaxing, talking, laughing, eating and enjoying the good company. We had an income of $1,960.00 and expenses of $1,898.19 for a profit of $61.81. Being the first camp out of the year it was hard to get the rigs out and moving, but we had a great time. Hope more rigs make it in April. See you then. GENE C.
